BIG CROWDS

At The Organization of The Community Welfare and Progress Association.

The work of the Farmers' Chautauquas, which were so successful in Madison county, is being extended by the organization of Rural Development Centers over the county, which means permanency to the Farmers' Chautauquas. The first meeting was held at Waco, Wednesday. In the afternoon practical demonstrations were made along the line of milk testing, soil testing, budding, grafting, seed test and selection. At night Prof. J. S. Pullen spoke to a crowded house on "Soil Fertility and Prosperity." The audience was enthusiastic and an excellent organization was secured. The purposes of the organization are:

To arouse the community in terms of its own welfare, and to stimulate, direct and unite the people in all proper self development.

To institute and give impetus to a constructive program for the development of the open country.

To develop the native human resources of the community.

To redirect the resident forces of the community, as home, school, church, etc.

To stimulate and educate local initiative and leadership.

To co-ordinate all these forces and federate all the agencies capable of bettering country life.

Dr. Crabbe, of Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, is committed to this work and when seen by our reporter to night, said:

"This is only a continuance of the Farmers' Chautauquas movement. It is the greatest movement with which I was ever connected, and during the next year we hope to organize these centers in every county in the Eastern District. The movement in Madison county is already a success, the people at Waco were enthusiastic, and within the next two or three weeks we expect to organize just such community centers at Kirksville, Union, Berea and Kings ton."

"In these organizations it is hoped that the school can be helped to measure up to its responsibilities. Some of the plans are to map out a planting plan for the school grounds, make out art plans for interior decorations, show the advantage of directed play, give the fundamentals of agriculture, fruit growing, household science, sanitation and hygiene, manual training, etc. It does not stop here, but goes into the home, anywhere to be of assistance. The farmer will be aided in problems of crop rotation, seed selection, variety values, fertilizer requirements, breeding problems. The housewife will be interested in decoration, cooking, sewing, serving, canning, clean milk, care of children, pure water. Yes, sir, it is a great movement and we are going to push it to the limit."

Mr. Walker Will Move to The Country.

Mr. J. B. Walker will move with his family this week to the Joe Oldham farm one mile from Richmond, on the Irvine pike. Mr. Walker, however, will continue with the firm of John R. Gibson & Co., this city, which news will be pleasing to his many friends in this and adjoining counties. Mrs. Oldham will move to this city and will take rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Kit Park, who will also move here to reside.

Schoberth to Address Elks.

Hon. Harry Schoberth, of Versailles, will deliver the address at the annual Memorial Services of Richmond Lodge of Elks, the first Sunday in December, in this city. This beautiful custom of the Elks in gathering together once a year to pay respect to their honored dead is always looked forward to by our citizens as a very prominent feature of this lodge, and, as usual, a musical program befitting the occasion will be rendered. Mr. Schoberth is an orator of widespread reputation, and our citizens should turn out en masse on that afternoon.

Fine Exhibition.

Madison county will have next month one of the best exhibitions of poultry ever displayed in Central Kentucky. The Madison County Poultry Association has perfected all arrangements for their annual show and indications are that this exhibition will eclipse all former efforts of those who have diligently endeavored to bring to this city the very best stock of fowls to be had in the State. In addition to Madison, several adjoining counties have joined in to assist in making the poultry show in this city equal or superior to any exhibition to be held in Kentucky during the present winter. Poultry fanciers from every section of Kentucky have signified their intentions to be present, and indications are that the large skating rink will be filled with fancy fowls of every description. It is the desire of the Association that every citizen of Madison county give the poultry show a substantial endorsement by attending during the four days' meeting, beginning Dec. 10.

Serious Catarrh Yields To Hyomei.

Do not let this serious disease extend along the delicate mucous membrane, gradually going from the nose to the throat, thence into the bronchial tubes and downward into the lungs.

There is no other treatment for catarrh that is like Hyomei or just as good. None can take its place, none give such quick, effective and sure relief and at so little cost—furthermore, B. L. Middleton will refund your money if you are not satisfied.

Begin using Hyomei now—to-day—and see how quickly the drippings into the throat, the discharge of the nose, sniffing and all other symptoms of catarrh are overcome; and remember—no stomach drugging—you breathe it. The complete containing inhaler and bottle of liquid costs but $1.00. Extra bottles of liquid, if later needed, 50 cents.

Cost of Bullfights.

During 1911, in the 392 rings of Spain, 4,301 bulls and 5,618 horses met their death in the bull ring. Ten toreadores were killed and 169 injured. Seven million spectators have spent on this "sport" 21,000,000 pesetas in that poor country. There are 44 old matadors and 325 so-called novilleros. The number of banderilleros, picadores and chutos amounts to 1,128, who annually get more than 4,000,000 pesetas in pay. Machaguito, the most famous "capata," alone earned in 60 bull fights 363,000 pesetas. Annually the value of the killed bulls amounts to 500,000,000 pesetas.—From the Animals Guardian.

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

PLEA IS FOR TIME

DEMOCRATS SAY THE COST OF LIVING CAN'T BE EXPECTED TO DECLINE YET.

TARIFF ALONE NOT ENOUGH

Wilson Believes Other Measures Will Reduce Prices in a Year—Solution of the Problem Admittedly the Key to Power.

By GEORGE CLINTON.
Washington.—By force of the new tariff law is the cost of living to be reduced? Some of the Democrats in Washington apparently desire that the country shall believe quickly and fully that the Underwood-Simmons bill cannot be expected to bring down the price of things until it has been in operation for at least ten months or a year.

The Democrats, while they do not seemingly believe that the tariff alone will make a great difference in the cost of necessities, are hopeful that other bills which they intend to enact into law, coupled with the tariff, will bring material relief to the consumers of the country. It must be left of course to time to prove whether the Democrats are right or not. President Wilson seemingly is convinced that in a year things will not cost as much as they do now.

Leaders of the three parties together claim, or admit, whichever way you choose to put it, that the political organization which can present the best plan to bring down the high cost of living will be the one to get control of the house of representatives next year and of the presidency two years later. The Democrats are in power and if they have a plan to make living cheaper they can put it into effect if they want to. In the early days the party made definite promises that the tariff would turn the cost cutting trick, but now there is a little hedging on this proposition and the promise is that when the anti-trust laws are in force next year prices will drop so that the consumer can hear them.

Opponents Are Satirical.

Some of the opposition party members in Washington are asking the Democrats why, if their anti-trust legislation is to accomplish such high deeds of service to the people, it is necessary for various official bodies to be studying other means of reducing the cost of living. The agricultural department today is trying to solve the problem and men have been sent abroad to study agriculture and marketing methods over there with the hope that the result of their studies may bring relief over here. Naturally the opposition party men are satirical. They say that perhaps the Democrats hope to cut the prices of living in half through their anti-trust legislation and then to wipe out the other half through the solving of certain agricultural problems, thus bringing the consumers of the country to the blissful condition of men and women who can get everything they want for nothing.

One of the salient facts as it obtrudes itself in political circles in Washington is that the leaders of the three parties maintain that the high cost of living is the big problem of the day, and each party virtually seems ready to admit that ascendancy will come to or be held by the political organization which presents a plan which appears to the people to be adequate to the occasion. Of course the Democrats say that their tariff and their anti-trust legislation must have given time to prove the virtues which are claimed for them. The people probably will be willing to do this and will not lay the crime of incompetency up against the Democracy until a year or so has elapsed, when if eggs are still fifty cents a dozen and butter forty-five cents a pound, and clothes $40 a suit, there may be an attempt to change the existing political order on the ground that the next condition can be no worse than the existing one, and that perhaps it may be better.

Will Wages Drop Also?

Both Progressives and Republicans seem to think that there may be some little drop in the cost of things as a result of the Democratic tariff legislation. The Republicans are certain, and some of the Progressives feel "in a less degree likewise," that if the present tariff law does bring a reduction in prices it will also bring a reduction in wages. It was not long ago that the senate appointed a committee to investigate the causes of the high prices of living. Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts was the chairman of the committee, which was dominated by Republicans. What might have been expected happened. The main feature of the report turned in was that the tariff had nothing to do with keeping prices up.

It is definitely known that President Wilson and his Democratic friends in house and senate are hoping and perhaps praying that out of the legislation which the party now in power has enacted or intends to enact something will come which will cause prices to drop without making wages drop with them. The high cost of living is still the chief matter of concern to the leaders of a party who for personal and public reasons want to keep that party in power. The key to the problem lies somewhere, and men of three different party faiths are searching, each hoping that he may be the one lucky enough to find it.

TRUSTS COME NEXT

PRESIDENT WILL ATTEMPT TO RESTORE COMPETITION IN BUSINESS.

TASK ADMITTEDLY DIFFICULT

Wilson Soon to Tell Congress His Plans for Breaking Up the Great Corporations Without Harming the Country's Prosperity.

By GEORGE CLINTON.
Washington.—President Wilson is studying the trusts. In his annual message to congress or as soon as currency is out of the way, he will recommend that the old time conditions of business competition be restored in this country. Attorney General McReynolds is at work on anti-trust law suggestions. Other members of the cabinet will have ready thoughts of their own on the subject when the time, already nearly at hand, shall come when Mr. Wilson must formulate his recommendations on a matter which Democrats say will test the law making abilities of his administration as neither the tariff nor the currency can.

The president's task is in a sense the remaking of a nation of shopkeepers and small manufacturers. He has said publicly that competitive conditions of the old kind can be restored and that it falls to the lot of the Democrats to do the restoring. The dynamite of a new law is to be placed at the foundation of some big concerns and they are to be broken into integral parts, all of them small, "without injuring the industries which they have housed and promoted, and without harming the prosperity of the American people."

There are Democrats, Progressives and Republicans ready enough to admit that the old competitive conditions was an ideal one to foster independence in business, and to promote that interest in affairs which the small business man or manufacturer with his work at stake always must feel. There are Democrats, Progressives and Republicans, however, in congress who seem to think that the administration will have hard work to bring back by the mandate of law the conditions of the days that are gone.

Leaders Admit It Is Big Task.

The Democratic leaders naturally fear that if they fall in anti-trust legislation the good which they say will come from their tariff and their currency laws, may possibly avail them nothing at the next election. They look at some of the great corporations as they exist today and "feel publicly" and "say privately" that to break them into small parts and to set each particular part against the other with prosperity for all is a task big enough to test the ability of any man and any party.

Shortly the president's recommendations for anti-trust legislation will be given to the public. There are more than rumors in Washington that in the attorney general's office, although perhaps not shared by the attorney general himself, there is a feeling that the administration would do much better if it would attempt a regulating rather than a disintegrating policy.

Regulation is the proposal of one of the opposition parties. A resolving into competitive parts is the policy of the administration, and probably will be the announced policy of the congressional majority which is now in power. Compromise will mean a giving way to the proposals of the enemy. Separation into parts, some of the Democratic leaders seem to feel, may mean business disaster. Mr. Wilson is said to have no such fear.

Must Conserve Prosperity.

The administration, naturally, for patriotic as well as political reasons, desires that the new anti-trust legislation shall restore competition while also conserving prosperity. Attorney General McReynolds is at work on suggestions for the new law bearing in mind constantly that while it is intended to be a breaking law it is also intended to be a making law. The Democrats fear of course that in dissolving the big corporations, prosperity may be dissolved. They say they think it is possible that by drastic methods old time individual trade rivalry can be restored, but some few of them are fearful that the means used may be such as to react on the party which uses them. Admittedly the coming anti-trust legislation is a difficult subject, one to be handled delicately and to be looked at from all corners and sides before a final draft of the law is made.

A Republican administration separated some of the big companies into their original constituent parts, but there are no Republicans in congress today who have been willing to go on record as saying that competition has been restored. The Democrats say that the Republican law did not complete the actual separation of the corporations into parts. The Progressives have declared for regulation of big business by means of a board similar to the interstate commerce commission. Some of the administration Democrats and some Republicans seemingly are inclined to believe that some kind of a compromise may be made by the present administration between regulation of the big companies and their actual separation into units unconnected one with another.

President Wilson thinks he can restore competition without hurting business or landing prosperity. He will tell the people in a message early in the winter how he thinks it can be done.

COMPLETE TIE-UP

OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES IS THREATENED BY UNION LEADERS.

Trainmen Say Federation Must Be Recognized—Violence Made Its Appearance.

Western Newspaper Union News Service
New Orleans.—A complete tie-up of the Southern Pacific lines is threatened by union leaders. Every union engineer, fireman, conductor, brakeman, flagman and yardman on the division between and including New Orleans and El Paso already is out, and the system is paralyzed for a distance of more than a thousand miles. The leaders declared the strike would be extended beyond El Paso, to include the allied Southern Pacific lines of the Pacific coast to Oregon and from the coast eastward to the Rocky mountain states. Violence made its appearance. At Houston an engine was allowed to run wild through the yards until it was wrecked. Later a carload of cotton was burned. Minor clashes were reported at several points. In New Orleans there was no outbreak, but the situation at the Algiers shops was grave. A report that strike-breakers were being brought in to man the engines and trains caused a demonstration by unionists.

CHAUFFEUR SURRENDERS.
New York.—Thomas Flood, the sixth of seven men indicted in this county for conspiracy in bringing about the escape of Harry Thaw from Matteawan asylum, surrendered and was held in $1,000 bail. Flood was a chauffeur. Of the conspirators all have surrendered or been captured with the exception of "Gentleman Roger" Thompson. He was held for a while in Canada, but was released.

HOLDS UP PASSENGERS.
Oakland, Cal.—A lone handit held up the rear Pullman of the California Overland Mail Train No. 5 between San Pablo and Richmond. He secured $1,000 in cash and an equal amount in jewelry. The handit compelled Conductor Watson to stop the train at Pullman, a few miles south of Richmond, and jumped from the train and disappeared in the vicinity of the Pullman car shops at that point.

CARS AND ENGINE DITCHED.
Stearns, Ky.—Oscar Davis, of Pine Knot, Ky., fireman, was instantly killed near Anabel, Tenn., when north-bound train No. 15 of the Queen and Crescent railway, known as the Royal Palm Limited, left the rails on a sharp curve, overturning the engine and several cars. The train was running behind time. The cause of the accident was a turned rail.

TRANSACTIONS NULL AND VOID.
London.—Great Britain concurs in the stand taken by President Wilson that any business transacted by or concessions granted by the congress convened by Gen. Huerta will be null and void. Financial circles here understand that such concessions would not be worth the paper they are written on, and there is reason to believe that the word has been passed along to other European countries having possible interests in Mexico.

The law limits the public school term to six months and Superintendent of Public Instruction Hamlet, who had intended extending the present school year to seven months, says that the next Legislature will be asked to pass a law making the seven months' term mandatory.

It is generally believed that a deal is pending between the two corporations and Mr. Slemmons, who owns some fine coal properties in the Boone's Fork region.

Lexington, Ky.—A movement has been started to use moving pictures in the public schools of Lexington, and the Lincoln Model school in the Irish-town district has already successfully tried the experiment. It is proposed to raise a fund by contributions from the various schools for the purchase of a motion picture machine, with which it is proposed to exhibit educational films for the instruction and entertainment of the pupils and patrons of the schools. An entertainment given at the Lincoln school in which motion pictures formed the exhibit, realized $25 from the door receipts, and this sum will be used as a nucleus for the purchase fund to which the other schools are expected to contribute.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you hear a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness results, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored forever; also cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (proved by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged. This explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription. We have sold other remedies for skin

ENVOY LIND SENDS FINAL ULTIMATUM TO MEXICO'S HEAD

Huerta Must Yield to U. S. by Today or Mexican Ports Will Be Blockaded.

JAP ARMS SENT REPUBLIC

Washington Officials Are of Opinion President Wilson Has Decided That Time for Action Has Arrived—Delayed Long Enough.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 15.—Special Envoy John Lind has sent an ultimatum to the Mexican government. This was revealed here by a friend of General Huerta.

The ultimatum insists that Huerta yield to all demands of the United States by today. The alternative is an immediate blockade of all Mexican ports by American ships.

Lind's demand was transmitted to Huerta in a code dispatch sent shortly after midnight. It was telegraphed by an official of the Mexican government who was sent here from Mexico City. He conferred secretly with Mr. Lind and was informed of the only basis on which diplomatic negotiations could continue.

This official is an intimate friend of the Mexican dictator and is acting as a personal envoy of Huerta.

Blockade Is Certain.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Secretary of State Bryan declined to discuss the terms of the note which the United States is reported to have sent to Provisional President Huerta, but it is regarded as certain that a blockade of Mexican ports by American warships is contemplated.

The state department was in constant communication with John Lind at Vera Cruz, and with Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City. Lind reported to the department that he has transmitted the American note to President Huerta but no reply yet has reached Washington.

Charge O'Shaughnessy telegraphed the department at length concerning the developments at Mexico City but this message was not made public at the state department.

Wilson Thinks Time for Action Here. Government officials who are familiar with the administration policy in connection with Mexico are of the opinion that President Wilson has decided that the time for action has arrived. The administration considers that it has given Huerta more than sufficient time to resign and that now it is up to the United States to take more stringent measures. The program anticipated includes the severance of all diplomatic relations between Washington and Mexico City and the withdrawal of Charge O'Shaughnessy and other American diplomats.

Following this, it is expected that an active blockade of all Mexican ports will be maintained by the Second and Third divisions of the Atlantic fleet now in Mexican waters, aided by the torpedo flotilla stationed at Charleston, S. C. So far as possible, this blockade will be peaceful, the American ships having orders only to turn back any commercial vessels carrying arms, ammunition or provisions into Mexico. While this may lead to war with Mexico, government officials feel that they can gain their end by starving out the country.

U. S. Making Military Preparations. Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 15.—Military movements along the Mexican border show that preparations are being made for immediate field service. Orders received by the Ninth U. S. cavalry showed that all leaves are being restricted. The soldiers of that regiment are preparing their equipment. Several carloads of extra wagons have been received by United States troops at Douglas, Ariz. There are now facilities for transporting supplies for one thousand men for six months.

Jap Arms to Mexico. Tokio, Nov. 15.—If General Huerta, the Mexican dictator, throws his country into war against the United States the American soldiers will be fought with Japanese arms. It was learned here that, in addition to purchasing 20,000 magazine rifles and 15,000,000 rounds of ammunition in this country, General Huerta has placed orders for 45 pieces of artillery.

The transactions were carried on through the export and import house of Mitsui, the explanation given by the Mexican government being that the arms and munitions were needed to fight the rebels. According to military circles, who are conversant with Mexican conditions, Mexico could mount 350 effective guns, after the arrival of the 45 cannon. The armaments are en route for Mexico.

Rebels Capture Mexican Towns.

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 15.—The city of Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa, was captured by Mexican rebels after a desperate battle lasting three days.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 15.—The city of Hidalgo, one of the richest mining towns of northern Mexico, was captured by Constitutionalists.

Kaiser Bars Tango.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—Kaiser Wilhelm is taking drastic measures to suppress the tango craze in Berlin society. He has ordered the tango from court balls or functions where members of the royalty may be present.

KEEPING SOUND AND NORMAL

Too Many Neglect the Wonderful Machine Which Constitutes the Human Body.

You never saw a clock that didn't need rewinding, a machine which wouldn't break down, a lamp that did not require refilling. Experience has taught you when to use the key, where to look for lost screws and bolts, and what oil will produce the most light with the least waste.

It's surprising how careful we are with the things upon which we depend for comfort, and the tools on which we rely for our livelihood. But how about the most important piece of machinery—the star—that body of yours? It's far more delicate than the most intricate mechanical device, much more sensitive. A marvelous affair, strung with minute nerves, crossed and criss-crossed with tiny feed and drain pipes, equipped with a furnace, storage stations, little warehouses to hold emergency supply—in fact, it is a manufacturing plant with more departments than you'd ever imagine, and every one of them needing constant attention. You are as healthy and capable as you are sound and normal.

If you exercise half the care in your body-keeping that you do in your house-keeping there is no telling how long you'll live or how comfortable you can be. Every pain, every ache, is a little warning—one of nature's alarm signs telling you that something is out of order, one of the little wires is tangled or a pipe is choked up. Your boilers may need a good cleaning. You have put improper fuel into your furnace, and it is either generating too much warmth or too little—Woman's World.

INTERESTING SPOT OF LONDON

Whispering Gallery of St. Paul's Cathedral Has Many Things to Interest the Visitor to the City.

The famous whispering gallery of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, is reached by a flight of 260 steps from the library. This gallery, which is about 210 feet above the cathedral floor, is noted for a curious echo, and is so named because a whisper uttered near the wall on one side of it is distinctly audible to a person standing on the other side, a distance of 105 feet in a straight line. From this point a good view is obtained of the church interior, the tessellated pavement of which looks like a minute chessboard, but it is liable to cause giddiness to anyone not used to heights. It also commands the best view of Thornhill's paintings and of the cathedral generally. From the whispering gallery 118 steps lead up to the stone gallery, an outer gallery with a stone parapet running round the base of the dome. Here in the clear sky of early morning may often be obtained a wonderful view of London, a view which is still more extensive from the golden gallery above the dome. From this point the lantern may be ascended by a spiral staircase to the golden hall, where six persons may stand at once.

Whole Steak.

So insistent is the demand of the Japanese people for whale meat that there is great danger of a scarcity of whales in that part of the Pacific near the Flowery Kingdom.

So obvious is this state of affairs that the Japanese government permits only 30 ships to operate for whale-hunting purposes, but the number of whales captured is not restricted in the least.

The Japanese greatly prefer whole steak to beefsteak, the best cuts of the former selling there for 12 cents a pound. It is said to be very much coarser than beefsteak and to have somewhat the same taste as venison.

The methods of preparing it resemble those used for beefsteak, the favorite methods being broiling, frying and baking.

The tail of the whale is considered especially delicious by our almond-eyed brethren.

My Lady's Mirror.

Exercise is a splendid skin tonic. A brisk walk, no matter if in the rain, will freshen the complexion, even as it freshens the flowers, and a simple aperient will do wonders for a muddy skin. It remains for all women to preserve such beauty as they have and to cure the defects which are peculiar to them or that time was wrought. Every skin is different and must be treated accordingly, and it takes a reasoning woman to experiment carefully and find out the proper method of treatment for her skin.

Most women, whether they be fleshy or thin, walk far too little. The woman who tends to be fleshy should walk for at least an hour every day, and do it regularly and systematically. As she gets accustomed to the exercise she should increase the number of miles she walks a day until she is doing five miles.—Exchange.

Clearly Insane.

Brian was quite unaccustomed to the ways of society, but he had obtained a very good post as footman. The morning after taking up his duties his lordship rang for him and told him to ask her ladyship if she was "at home." "She is, sir," said Brian; "she's just gone into the drawing-room." "Please do what I ask," said his lordship. Brian went timidly to the drawing-room. "If you please, your ladyship, his lordship wants to know if you're at home." "No, tell him; not today." "Bedad!" said Brian, "they're both mad."

Madison County Farmers Hear Good Talks on Farm Topics—Enthusiasm Displayed.

Western Newspaper Union News Service

The work of the Farmers' Chautauquas, which were so successful in Madison county, is being extended by the organization of rural development centers over the county. The first meeting was held at Waco, Practical demonstrations were made along the line of milk testing, seed testing and selection, budding and grafting and soil testing. Prof. J. S. The purposes of the organization are: To arouse the community in terms of its own welfare, and to stimulate, direct, and unite the people in all proper self-development.

It is proposed that the program this time eschew women suffrage, tax reform and similar subjects and confine its scope altogether to shop talk. The members of the committee who will confer with Chairman Ross and assist in the preparation of the program are Edward D. Shinnick, of the Shelbyville Record; Shelton M. Sauter, of the Stanford Interior Journal, and D. M. Hutton, of the Harrodsburg Herald.

All the lawyers, doctors, professors, ministers, business men and college students in town are asked to participate in the spelling bee. John Bain will "give out" the words and the old-fashioned blue back speller will be used.

White, first vice president; Mrs. J. B. Alexander, second vice president; Mrs. E. L. Hancock, recording secretary; Mrs. J. W. McKimney, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. C. Cherry, president of the Normal School, has been granted a month's leave of absence by the Board of Regents, and has left for the Isle of Pines, sixty miles south of Cuba, where he will fish and enjoy himself generally. MINERS WILL GET TURKEYS.

Pikeville, Ky.—T. J. Mitchell, superintendent of the Allegheny Coal & Coke Co., at Hiller, has ordered a dressed turkey to be delivered to the home of every employee of the mines at Thanksgiving. This means that upward of 150 families will partake of glad Thanksgiving cheer at Mr. Mitchell's bounty.

BAPTISTS CHOOSE SOMERSET.

Lexington, Ky.—The twentieth annual convention of the General Association of Baptists of Kentucky was one of the most successful conventions in the history of the body. The convention decided upon Somerset as the next convention city and the Baptists will gather there next year in the early part of November.

ANOTHER STRIKE IN BARREN.

Glasgow, Ky.—Erb & Bailey, of this place, operating for E. L. Wasson & Co., of Butler, Pa., have drilled in a well on Beaver Creek, four miles from here. Oil was found at the depth of 385 feet. At first the oil was thought to be amber, but later it was decided that it was amber and green oil mixed, as it was found considerably below where most amber is found in this territory. Just what the strike will amount to is hard to say as no test has been made.

Saved His Foot.

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, Ohio, suffered from a horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. THE General Manager was presenting plans for an extension of the factory to the company's directors at Detroit. He found that he had left an estimate sheet in his desk at the factory. He called up the factory on the Bell Long Distance Telephone. His assistant read the figures to him and the directors were able to act without delay.

Hospital, after an illness of about two weeks. Mrs. Powell resided at 220
W. High street. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Edward Powell, a sister, alarming stage and the end came with rapidity. He was about 16 years of age and a bright young man, and his death brings sorrow to many hearts. Interment took place in the burying-ground at Calcutt yesterday afternoon, the funeral

Elbert Heiner Charged With Killing Johnson.

Considerable mystery surrounded the killing at Bearwallow, about ten days ago, of George Johnson, until Saturday, when Elbert Heiner came into the city and voluntarily surrendered himself to Sheriff David McCord. Heiner claims to be only nineteen years of age, and states that he had met Johnson only once before the tragedy, and at that time they traded shoes. A few moments previous to the shooting, Heiner claims Johnson approached him and accused him of cheating him in a deal, and,
jumping from the horse he was riding,
Johnson jerked him from his mule, threatening to kill him, and in the struggle that followed Heiner shot Johnson, killing him instantly. Heiner is a resident of Jackson county, but recently purchased a small farm near Bearwallow, and claims that he came down to that place to make a payment on same.
When asked why he did not surrender immediately after the tragedy, stated that he would have done so but returned to his home to make arrangements for his wife and baby, as he realized he would be retained here until after his examining trial.
